

Flip Steinour

Flip Steinour is currently the Assistant to the Executive Director - COO for IU Lancaster-Lebanon 13 located in Lancaster, PA and the Executive Director for the Pennsylvania Association of School Personnel Administrators (PASPA). Previously, Flip had served as the Director of Human resources at Capital Area IU and Lincoln IU. In addition to this role, Flip also served for four years on the executive leadership committee of (PASPA), serving as President of this group from 2005-2006. He has also co-chaired the Central Pennsylvania Association of School Personnel Administrators (CPASPA) for 5 years. Flip has been an active member of the Society for Human Resource management (SHRM) for the past 20 years. Flip possesses a master's degree from Villanova University and a bachelor's degree from Shippensburg University.

AASPA Outstanding Service Award (for serving as Secretary) 2003-2004

PASPA Outstanding Service Award (for serving as President) 2005-2006

PASPA Presidents Award 2009 recipient

PAIU Gary L. Miller Award for contributions to the PAIU group - 2014

AASPA – American Association of School Personnel Administrators member (1996-present)

Special Olympics supporter and coach (2006-present)

Serves on the Property & Finance Committee – Warwick School District (2013-present)